When my parents moved to the area from out of state, Sergio completed an extensive renovation of their new home. My husband and I were very impressed by the quality and timeliness of his work, so when it was time to renovate our own kitchen he was our first choice.

We love our 1950s era home, but the kitchen was small and outdated. With three children and two large dogs we badly needed a more efficient kitchen and extra storage space. We had some ideas of our own, and Sergio added excellent design plans to really make the new kitchen fit our needs and budget.

From start to finish the project was well executed and remained on time and on budget. The finish work in particular made the house look every bit as we imagined. From painting, to tile work, to cabinet and finish work, we couldn't be happier with our new kitchen and the attention to detail and quality workmanship that has gone into it.

Every renovation project encounters some unexpected challenges, but Sergio had a range of solutions for every one of them that stayed within our budget and kept the project on task.

Sergio's integrity and professionalism made this a stress free experience. I would highly recommend Sergio Diaz for any home renovation project.
